My Fingerprints

We recommend that children be fingerprinted by trained individuals, such as law enforcement personnel, using appropriate technology, ink, and fingerprinting cards. Fingerprints may also be stored in these spaces, as our Child ID Kit is printed on acid-free paper. This kit does not include self-fingerprinting strips because they can leave unreadable prints which are of no value to law enforcement.

My Rules For Safety

- 1 I CHECK FIRST with my Safe Side Adult (parents, guardians, or other trusted adults) before going anywhere, doing anything, helping anyone, accepting anything, getting into a vehicle, or leaving with anyone.
- 2 I TAKE A FRIEND with me when going places or playing outside.
- 3 I TELL someone NO if they try to touch me or do things in ways that make me feel scared, uncomfortable, or confused, because it's OK for me to stand up for myself.
- 4 I TELL my parents, guardians, or other trusted adults if any thing happens to me.

Sometimes there are people who choose to trick or hurt others. There is no excuse — no one has the right to force, trick, or pressure people into doing things they don't want to do. So use these rules, and remember you are STRONG and SMART, and have the right to be SAFE. Always.

What To Do If Your Child Is Missing

Act immediately if you believe that your child is missing.

- If your child is missing from home, search the house checking closets, piles of laundry, in and under beds, inside old refrigerators—wherever a child may crawl or hide.
- If you still cannot find your child, immediately call your local law-enforcement agency.
- If your child disappears in a store, notify the store manager or security office. Then immediately call your local law-enforcement agency. Many stores have a Code Adam plan of action—if a child is missing in the store, employees immediately mobilize to look for the missing child.
- When you call law enforcement, provide your child's name, date of birth, height, weight, and any other unique identifiers such as eye glasses and braces. Tell them when you noticed that your child was missing and what clothing he or she was wearing.
- Request that your child's name and identifying information be immediately entered into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) Missing Person File.
- After you have reported your child missing to law enforcement, call The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children on its toll-free telephone number, 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678). If your computer is equipped with a microphone and speakers, you may talk to one of the Center's Hotline operators via the Internet.

Some child ID kits include a plastic bag or other container for hair or other samples. We don't recommend this type of DNA sample storage. If law enforcement agencies need a DNA sample, they will collect it in the home by taking a toothbrush, hairbrush or other items.
